3 soverom Rekkehus til salgs i Torre de la Horadada, Alicante

399.900€

A fabulous ground floor property with a huge outside area for entertaining or just chilling out in. The property is South West facing and comes with access to a community pool, gym, jacuzzi and sauna but due to the size of the terrace area the owners have added a large private heated pool.

Inside you will find that this property has been beautifully decorated with lots of added extras, underfloor heating in the lounge and bathrooms, A/C throughout the property, built in wardrobes, lots of extra storage, extra sockets etc.

Outside the property has two large pergolas and a large awning to help keep you cool, the property also has added privacy glass on the perimeter wall to keep the property very private.

This is a luxury property, built and designed to a very high standard and located very close to the various commercial areas in La Torre de la Horadada as well as the marina and the sandy beaches.
