A beautifully presented, unique and spacious historic townhouse with its own private central patio and extensive roof terrace offering stunning views.

Casa Buena Vista can be found in the heart of the historic hilltop "old town" of Arcos de la Frontera. Its ideal location is close to all of the unique architecture and monuments woven within the character cobbled streets. Shops, quality restaurants and bars are a short walk away.

This beautiful townhouse has been tastefully renovated and boasts many features showcasing the craftsmanship and style unique to this area of Andalucía such as arched doorways and ornate ceilings. The tiled floors and Moorish accents found throughout the property add to its authenticity and charm.

The property is currently split into 2 main living areas. The top floor is a 1 bedroom apartment which has been successfully rented out to holiday makers and the ground and 1st floor is a 2 bedroom house which has been sympathetically renovated to preserve many of the original features. Both properties can be accessed from the private central courtyard.

This house could be a perfect family home, holiday investment property or even a combination of both. Although the house is presented ready for immediate use, it still offers scope for creating a personalised space to suit the needs and style of any buyer.
