Welcome to your dream family home! This magnificent country house boasts a truly breathtaking location on the edge of the Sierra del Carche national park, providing stunning and uninterrupted views of the mountain, valley, and surrounding countryside. Nestled in a tranquil and delightful setting, you'll be surrounded by an abundance of wildlife and natural beauty, allowing you to experience a rural idyll like no other. Despite its peaceful setting, this substantial home is conveniently located just 5 km from the centre of Pinoso, accessible via a private track that ensures complete privacy and seclusion. The property is set in an enormous plot, offering endless opportunities for both domestic and business use. With a swimming pool, self-contained detached guest house, and an additional 9 cave rooms, this site provides an incredible proposition as a rural retreat, rental, or spa. The main house has been beautifully renovated to the highest standards and covers 400m², with central heating throughout. On the ground floor, you'll find a hall, dining room with pellet stove, large kitchen-dining room, living room with mezzanine and wood stove, 2 double bedrooms, bathroom with shower, and a substantial storeroom with access to the large covered porch that overlooks the pool at the back of the house. Upstairs, there's a large living room, 3 double bedrooms, and a master bedroom with a bathroom. The property also includes a separate 71m² guest house with a combined kitchen/dining/living room, shower room, and 2 bedrooms. There's also a separate workroom and a generous 9 room, 180m² cave house that can be reformed, along with 3 exterior cave rooms. The overall plot is over 65,000m² and includes a new 15,000 litre water tank, modern solar system with high power batteries, and a mix of almond, olive, and pine trees. This stunning country house offers a unique opportunity to own a magnificent family home in an unbeatable location. Don't miss out on the chance to make this rural dream a reality!
