

3 soveværelse Byhus til salg i La Carrasca, Jaén

69.000€

This lovely, ready to move into furnished 3 bedroom town house is not far from a reservoir in the village of La Carrasca in the province of Jaen in Andalusia, Spain and about 20 minutes from the city of Martos. It would make a great holiday home being about an hour and half from the major cities of Granada and Cordoba. Access to the house is via a pavement that is higher than the road, then the front door opens into the good sized living room. There is a corridor that goes to the kitchen with the bathroom further on. The stairs to the first floor are on the left and a bedroom on the right. On the first floor are two further bedrooms with connecting doorway. If required this door can be closed and then separate access is possible for both rooms. From the kitchen there is access to the partly covered patio and at the back there is another kitchen with a large fireplace and there is a good sized storage room above which could make a 4th bedroom.
