MIJAS

the promotion is located in the municipality of Mijas, on the western Costa del Sol, a town that perfectly combines seaside tourism and residential character. Its privileged geographical location, between the sea and the hills, gives it countless attractions. The climate is very mild in winter and moderately hot in summer. The sea of the Mijas coast presents a great biodiversity, with a large number of Atlantic and Mediterranean species. Gastronomy The gastronomy of Mijas is very rich and varied, offering a contrast between the traditional Andalusian image and an adaptation to new trends, without losing the essence of these lands. Its coastal location allows it to offer all types of fresh fish and seafood that arrive in the ports every day, accompanied by sweet wines from the Málaga Designation of Origin and Arabic-style pastries. In addition, you can enjoy restaurants of recognized prestige that prepare dishes based on top quality local products.

A place of cultural tradition The cove of Mijas has a historical heritage which is reflected in its four towers: the Torre de Calahonda, the Torre Batería de la Cala del Moral, the Torre de Calaburras (16th century) and the Torre Nueva de la Cala del Moral (Nineteenth century). In its old town, you will discover many places to visit, such as the remains of the Arab wall or the chapel of the Virgen de la Peña. The flour mill, the historical-ethnological museum or the contemporary art center are other places of historical interest
