

9 soveværelse Byhus til salg i Albánchez, Almería

149.000€

Large three-story house for sale in Albánchez, set within a stroll away from all necessary amenities. The property has a very large build size and is set on three floors.

The ground floor comprises grand entrance hall, living room with traditional fireplace, two rooms which are currently used as a living room and games room, bathroom, kitchen, pantry, wine cellar and a garage. The first floor which is accessed by the impressive marble staircase comprises nine bedrooms and a bathroom. The third floor floor is divided into rooms but is a blank canvas at this time.

This property has so many different possibilities, such as being divided into two independent houses, converted into a B&B business or boutique hotel or simply to enjoy as a family home.

It is a spectacular property and feels like something you would find in a movie. It is located in a quiet and charming town, with good views, surrounded by nature and stunning mountain ranges, ten minutes drive to the motorway and around a 45 minute drive from the coastal resorts.
