

6 soveværelse Byhus til salg i Martos, Jaén

65.000€

NOW REDUCED...This townhouse is not like any other. Its a grand property set in the heart of the historic quarter of Martos and offers so much potential probably as a small hotel / B and B..but as a family home it could be stunning! Yes it does need work inside but just take a look. It has several terraces and internal patios - one could even house a swimming pool! - plus many original spanish features. There are archways, stairways, and a total of 6 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms. It has 3 possible sitting rooms and two kitchens plus many store rooms etc. It also has a garage which is a real bonus in this town. Words dont do this property justice so come and view for yourself if this is the kind of special property you are looking for. All the amenities of this historic town are within walking distance too. It now needs a full reform out the back which is why its been priced to a very low price now but then you can create your own choices out there so you will have so many options there and then get the property of your dream. You need to check this now and please send us any questions too.
