

4 soveværelse Landsted til salg i Fuente Alamo, Jaén

130.000€

This is a good village house with lots of potential to improve even more to create a lovely family home in this popular village. It has many outside storerooms and a garage too. The property is accessed off a large outside terrace which is great for outside dining etc. Inside there is a fitted kitchen with fireplace, dining room, also with a woodburner and a sitting room, also with a wood burner..so in the winter months this house can be very warm and cosy! There is a double bedroom on this floor too plus a full bathroom. Stairs take you to the 1st floor with 3 more double bedrooms, bathroom and access to the roof terraces and balconies. Great views from all around here. Because of the amount of outside space it would be possible to create a pool area too And its very safe for pets as the area is walled and gated. There is so much potential with the property so get in touch for more details.
