NOW REDUCED.

If you are looking for the perfect property with no work required, either as a holiday home or for a family to live in full time, then you have to look at this one. Its been totally reformed to a very high standard and offers great value for money.

You enter the property into a cosy sitting room with fireplace. This room leads through to the open plan kitchen / dining room, all fully fitted. There is a full bathroom on this floor and another small room which could be used as either a bedroom, sitting room or office.

On the 1st floor, there are 2 double bedrooms plus another full bathroom. A further 2 bedrooms and a bathroom can be accessed off the terrace at the back so the possibility of renting these out to generate some extra income or great for when friends or family come to stay. The terrace also offers a shower room but the real bonus with this property is the lovely outdoor swimming pool with BBQ area. The pool is totally private so great for entertaining or just soaking up the sun.

This property offers so much and is in a quiet area of this popular village but you can walk to all amenities. The house is being sold with most of the high quality furniture thats brand new. Parking is easy too as there is no passing traffic, so you can park anywhere near the house. Its unusual to get a village property that offers so much and you are only 30 mins from Granada and its airport and 10 mins to the lovely town of Alcala la Real.
