

3 soveværelse Byhus til salg i Alcaudete, Jaén

63.000€

This traditional 2 to 3 bedroom, 2 bathroom townhouse on a narrow street is situated in the historical town of Alcaudete, in the Jaén province of Andalusia and has been lovingly restored, has castle views and is ready to move into. The street is narrow but is accessible by car and parking is at the end of the road. Enter into a spacious area with a bedroom off to the left, then another open area and the dining room on the left, the easy going stairs are on the right. Ahead is a snug with an open fireplace also the back door and a low entrance into the large kitchen diner. There is access to a spacious cellar from the dining area. Outside is a lovely, little bathroom, a utility area and steps up to the roof terrace with views of Alcaudete castle. On the first floor is a large, split level living area with castle views, a big double bedroom with a large en suite and through the bedroom is another big area for a 3rd bedroom, a dressing room or study. This renovated property with a new roof is a lovely comfortable home or could be an ideal holiday 'lock up and go' townhouse in the warm sunshine of southern Spain..
