

2 soveværelse Byhus til salg i Iznajar, Córdoba

50.000€

This semi detached 2 bedroom property sits within 5 other properties which all belonged to the same family. The property has great access and the structure is great with some original floors and real Spanish character. Over the years the property has been used for various things including partially for animals or animal feed and secondary as a small home. The property definitely needs a rethink to make in to a home as currently there is no bathroom or kitchen but for sure with a little imagination this could make a great little getaway or lock up and go holiday home being just 5 minutes from the wonderful inland lake of Iznajar.
