

4 soveværelse Byhus til salg i Antequera, Málaga

165.000€

This well presented townhouse sits in the historical town of Antequera, in the Malaga province of Andalucia, Spain, with spectacular views above and beyond the rooftops. This property comes with a private garage which has storage space and a second floor which would lend itself to a workshop, storage space whichever you require. The main house is set out over two floors with the ground floor opening in to an Andalusian tiled entrance hall with a ground floor double bedroom on the left and a well fitted kitchen on the right with plenty of storage space and on to a central lounge diner with stairwell to the first floor. The first floor has a full family bathroom and 3 further double bedrooms two are located to the front of the property with French doors opening out onto Juliet balconies which give spectacular views over the town. Back on the ground floor the living room opens to a private courtyard with a summer kitchen and a newly installed shower room. From the patio a stairwell leads to a covered dining area and onto a second patio that gives access to the garage and storage room connecting the whole property. This is a lovely property in a sought after location, well worth viewing.
