Unique penthouse in Dalt Vila with breathtaking sea views. The property was inhabited by the renovated architect Erwin Bronner and is a jewel in the old town of Ibiza. Casa Vedova is located directly in the charming old town. The Casa gives a lot of space and freedom and impresses with an open and light-flooded living concept, which is distributed over four levels. The property offers a total of four sleeping places. On the ground floor, guests can immediately feast their eyes on the elegant kitchen; some seating, a cozy fireplace, and a table provide more places to gather. On the 1st floor, guests will find a bathroom with a toilet, bidet, and rain shower, among other amenities. On the 2nd floor there is a bed for two people and another sleeping accommodation for also two people. The special feature here consists on one side of a half-open loggia, on the other side in the sensational view through the glass fronts with sublime views of the harbor and the old town. In addition, this bedroom impresses with a beautiful open fireplace, which creates a feel-good atmosphere, especially in the colder winter months. The 3rd floor is a roof terrace, which offers a magnificent panoramic view over the neighborhood and sunny breakfast possibilities.
