The new phase consists of 12 units projected within high quality luxury standards that the previous phases already possess and that there are, extensively valued by our clients, but incorporating energy systems, architectural solutions and proper characteristics of the most avant-garde architecture.

Our motto to promote this development is: As always ... as never. In this so simple slogan, we describe to perfection, what our company is trying to obtain presenting to the market these new apartments and penthouses: to unite tradition and modernity.

The signs of identity that give to our development a status of prestige, comfort, quality and service to its owners, and that is not in the area are: wide common areas with exuberant gardens, four swimming pools, integral maintenance of the properties to clientapos;s demand, 24 hours security, wide after-sale services.
