It's only a few minutes from the charming town of Válor, so you get all the serenity of country life, but with easy access to local amenities.

The property is fully fenced and gated, offering a real sense of security. There's also plenty of parking on a private driveway that leads up to the house. The outdoor kitchen is perfect for enjoying the laid-back Mediterranean lifestyle, whether you're cooking with fresh ingredients from your own land or just enjoying the beautiful surroundings. Inside, the house has a lovely traditional feel, with a gorgeous kitchen and a comfortable living space that's both stylish and practical.

You've got a few outbuildings on the property, one of which houses the solar setup, while the others are great for storing tools or anything else you need to care for the land. Speaking of which, the land itself is just the right size—not too big, but plenty of room for growing your own vegetables, keeping a few animals, or simply enjoying the outdoors. There's a lovely mix of fruit trees already in place, and the flat terraces are perfect for planting.

And here's a special touch – there's a peaceful waterfall running along the edge of the property, creating a soothing
