795.000€

Beautiful luxurious villa

Incredible villa with its own lagoon-style pool area and views of the sea and mountains. The house has a large basement currently used as an exclusive cat hotel suites but that can easily be converted into a large apartment. The villa consists of 4 bedrooms and 4 bathrooms including one en-suite. A large sunk living room with an office area connected to the dining room and the huge kitchen with a cooking island and panoramic views. The dining room leads out to a partially covered terrace which is connected to the hidden pool with its greenery and waterfalls that give a feeling of being on one's own island, though even there you have a views of the sea. On the upper level, where two of the bedrooms are situated there is a terrace that goes around the entire floor. The house is located in a private area with only 8 houses and the house is on 2 hectares of land with a fence around the entire site. On the plot there is a small stable for three horses.
