185.000€

Grand house close to the beach

Inside the national park of Cabo de Gata you find the Village Carboneras. With its typical white houses, harbour and picturesque beaches, this village is a haven for people seeking relaxation combined with an all year round active atmosphere.

Built for a large family or for two families this home offers an unparalleled space. With two floors, a private roof terrace, balcony that stretches along the entire front of the building, private garage and more space than you would have thought needed, this home is perfect for relocate permanently or use as a vacation home.

On the ground floor you have the large garage which is connected to the house. There are two storage rooms, two bedrooms where one has a cellar area perfect for constructing a bodega, kitchen, w.c, and two large patios.

On the first floor you find four bedrooms where three of them have access to balconies, the living room, complete bathroom and an additional storage room. On this floor you also have the stairs leading up to the roof terrace. From the roof terrace you have views reaching the Mediterranean sea and roughly 100 sqm to design the terrace of your dreams.
