

4 soveværelse Byhus til salg i Iznajar, Córdoba

48.000€

Nestled amongst five other properties once owned by the same family, this semi-detached house offers four bedrooms and a wealth of potential. Boasting excellent access and a structurally sound build, the property features charming original floors and a genuine Spanish feel. Having served various purposes over the years, including partial use for animals or animal feed and as a modest living space, it now presents a blank canvas for transformation into a comfortable home. While currently without a bathroom or kitchen, a little imagination could unlock its potential as a fantastic little retreat or an ideal lock-up-and-leave holiday home, conveniently located just a short 5-minute drive from the beautiful inland lake of Iznajar.
