The municipality of Calasparra is located in the inland region of Murcia, in its lowest area in terms of altitude, which is why the watercourses of the mountainous area of the region flow towards it on their way to the river Segura, which crosses the municipality. Calasparra is located on the foothills of the Sierra del Molino, counting at its feet with the wide rice plain that makes it famous, crossed by the Segura. The Segura River enters the municipality of Calasparra just when the Mundo River joins the Segura.
