Unique Country-Style Home with Mountain Views in Jesús Pobre

Discover this one-of-a-kind property on the edge of the charming village of Jesús Pobre, offering spectacular views of the Montgó and surrounding countryside—just a short walk to local shops, restaurants, and the popular Sunday farmers' market.

Accessed via a quiet country lane, the home sits on a private and secluded plot with ample parking and beautifully mature landscaping. The entrance opens onto a spacious, covered naya, ideal for outdoor dining or relaxing while enjoying the peaceful natural setting.

Step inside to a vaulted lounge with a log-burning stove, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere. The open-plan family area flows into a bright farmhouse-style kitchen with generous workspace and a large utility room offering exceptional storage.

Upstairs, the master suite is a showstopper—incredibly spacious with natural light, a large walk-in shower, roll-top bath, and dressing room. The second bedroom also features an en-suite, dressing space (ideal as a study or nursery), and ample storage. A snug/study area on the mezzanine offers the perfect retreat.

The third en-suite bedroom opens to a roof terrace with sweeping views—a peaceful haven for sunbathing or stargazing.
