The popular area of Punta Prima Spain is located on the border between Torrevieja and the Orihuela Costa. In terms of Punta Prima property for sale, it is a large mixed urbanisation with many villas, townhouses and apartments. The central part of Punta Prima boasts a huge variety of bars and restaurants catering for every taste, from McDonalds, fish and chips to tapas and Japanese. The traditional Chinese looking restaurant, 'Dinastia', is very popular along with the Asia Kitchen. In the evening there is a lovely atmosphere here with all the bars and restaurants lit up. To get your shopping you will find a choice of many well known supermarkets and mini markets that will stock all of the essentials. The commercial centre 'Punta Marina' is home to a supermarket, chemist, clothes shops, card shop, hairdressers, electrical shop, vets, tattoo parlour and many bars and restaurants. The road that connects the central part of Punta Prima to the beach is about a 10 minute walk. At the end of this road is the famous 'Nautilus' restaurant. This restaurant specialises in Mediterranean and Spanish cuisine. The food is beautifully presented and the location on Punta Prima beach front is stunning. A great place to celebrate a special occasion. This coastline just 5km southwest of Torrevieja has won an amazing 67 blue flag awards. A blue flag beach means the beach is safe, the water quality is good, life guards are present in the high season, accessibility is good and there are toilets available. The fabulous Punta Prima beach is 224m long and 28m wide. The beach is sandy with many rocky coves to explore just 10 km away.
