Located between Cami de Montuiri and the torrent de Pina, on open countryside in a quiet and peaceful community of larger fincas, the house has views of the mountains to the northeast. A large property of five bedrooms, on a large plot a little over 35 minutes' drive to Palma and less than 20 minutes from Santa Maria del Cami and Binissalem. Costitx in the Pla de Mallorca. Costitx is a small municipality in the central region of Mallorca, which is famous for the bronze age bulls heads known as the Bous de Costitx which were discovered at the Talayotic sanctuary of Son Corró close to the village. The originals are on display at Museu Arqueològic Nacional d'Espanya in Madrid, the village has copies on display in the cultural centre. The Observatorio Astronómico de Mallorca is also just to the south of the village benefiting the villages location in the centre of the island, the elevation of the landscape and and relatively low light levels.
