Cortijo Farmhouse Ruin with Large Rustic Plot in Los Castaños, Almería, Andalusia

Price: 82,000€

For sale is a traditional cortijo farmhouse in need of full restoration, together with a substantial plot of 45,200m² of rustic land in the peaceful area of Los Castaños, Almería. The existing building has 145m² on two levels and retains its roof.

The size of the land allows for the construction of a new home anywhere within the plot, making this an excellent opportunity for anyone wishing to create a custom property in a quiet rural setting. The elevated terrain provides lovely countryside views and even a distant glimpse of the sea.

The property is only a 20-minute drive from the coast, and close enough to Los Castaños to connect to electricity and water. Access to the main road is convenient, ensuring easy links to the motorway and nearby towns such as Los Gallardos and Turre.

This is an appealing option for those seeking rural living while remaining within reach of amenities and beaches.
