

6 soveværelse Byhus til salg i Fuente Piedra, Málaga

240.000€

Situated in popular Fuente de Piedra, in the Malaga province of Andalucia, Spain and famous for its Flamingo Lake. Here we are offering the opportunity to buy 2 completely independent properties which share a communal parking area with electric up and over entrance and room for 3 cars. The grey modern facade opens in to a spacious bright open plan lounge, kitchen diner and continues to 2 double bedrooms with built in storage and an adjoining bathroom which is accessed from both rooms. The first floor continues to a 3rd double bedroom with an ensuite bathroom and built in wardrobe and opens on to a private covered terrace with views over the surrounding village. The second property, which is accessed from the street behind, has a single storey facade that opens in to a typical Andalucian tiled entrance hall which continues to a central hallway with 1 double bedroom on the left and on the right a full family bathroom and then to a spacious lounge diner and a well fitted kitchen with lots of storage space including a separate pantry. This floor continues to a 3rd master bedroom which has steps down to a full dressing room and shower room. This property also has access to a private sun terrace. With a total build size of 391m² on a 219m² plot, both properties have been finished throughout to an extremely high standard and have many extras included, this would be ideal if you are considering buying something with a rental potential or for a large extended family that want to be close by yet have their own separate living accommodation.
