The property stands out for its excellent orientation and for having a garden that surrounds it on three sides, providing privacy, spaciousness and multiple possibilities for outdoor enjoyment.

It is distributed over three bedrooms and two bathrooms, with a very comfortable and functional layout. On the ground floor, there is a double bedroom and a full bathroom, ideal for people who prefer to avoid the continuous use of stairs or for receiving guests with complete independence. The living room and kitchen are integrated into a practical and bright space with direct access to the outside.

On the first floor, in addition to the bedrooms, the property has a large terrace with a barbecue and enough space for outdoor dining, perfect for family gatherings or al fresco dinners.

The property is topped off with a solarium on the third floor with sea views, a privileged space to relax, sunbathe or simply enjoy the Mediterranean surroundings.

A wellbalanced property, designed for yearround living or as a second home in an area that combines tranquillity
