

2 soveværelse Landsted til langtidsleje i Torrox, Málaga

950€ om eftermiddagen

Charming countryside villa with a private pool in the heart of the Spanish countryside. Located just 7 km from the picturesque white village of Torrox, this property offers spectacular views of the mountains and the lush landscape surrounding it, making it the perfect spot to enjoy the tranquility during the winter months.

Inside, the house is designed to offer comfort and warmth throughout the year. The spacious living/dining area features an open fireplace and air conditioning, creating a cozy atmosphere even on the coldest days. The fully equipped kitchen allows for easy meal preparation. A hallway leads to two inviting bedrooms: a master bedroom and a twin bedroom, both with built-in wardrobes. The family bathroom has a shower, ideal for relaxing after a day of exploring the area.

Outside, the property offers a large terrace around the pool, which can be enjoyed even during the milder winter months, with a barbecue area for outdoor dining. There is also a children's play area, a covered terrace, and parking.

This rural retreat is perfect for those who want to escape and enjoy the peace and quiet of the countryside while still being close to the coast and nearby villages.

Available from November to April.
