Charming detached cottage with views and rural charm – Cueva del Polvo, Guía de Isora

Located on the peaceful Cueva del Polvo road in Guía de Isora, this cozy detached cottage is ideal for those seeking peace, nature, and privacy without sacrificing being just a few minutes' drive from all amenities. Surrounded by a rural environment and with a privileged climate year-round, it is the perfect place to disconnect.

The property is distributed on a single level and offers 2 comfortable and bright bedrooms, a functional bathroom, a cozy living room for relaxation, and a practical kitchen with enough space for everyday living. Each room is designed to maximize natural light and views of the surroundings, creating a very pleasant sense of home.

Outside, the property features a spacious terrace, perfect for sunbathing, outdoor dining, or watching sunsets. It is an ideal space for a chill-out area, barbecue, or small planters with plants and flowers. Additionally, it has parking within the plot, providing convenience and security for vehicles.

This cottage is a fantastic option both as a primary residence and as a weekend getaway, for those looking for a peaceful retreat away from noise but with good road access to Guía de Isora, the coast, and the rest of the south of the island.

Important: the property is not mortgageable, so a buyer with own funds is required.
