

4 soveværelse Byhus til salg i Castillo de Locubin, Jaén

105.000€

This 254m² build, 4 bedroom 3 bathroom quality townhouse with a garden, patio and terraces is situated in popular Castillo de Locubin, close to the historical city of Alcala la Real in the south of Jaen province in Andalusia, Spain. You enter the substantial property from a front patio into a hallway with a door on the right that leads to quality steps taking you to the lower ground floor level where you have a lounge off which is a double bedroom with an ensuite, fully tiled bathroom. The steps continue to give access out onto an open terrace and to the garden space below. The lower ground floor stairway has its own street level access so it could be possible to create a separate guest or rental apartment. Back in the hallway, on the left is a lounge / dining room, ahead and to the right leads to a tiled storage, utility and laundry area which has access out onto a private terrace with far-reaching countryside views. Also on this level is a fully tiled, modern shower room and a good size fitted kitchen diner with a feature fireplace and a pantry. Stairs from the hallway take you to the first floor where you have a large double bedroom on the left, to the right a landing leads to 2 further bedrooms, the second of which has an ensuite shower room. Being sold part furnished, this spacious, well presented townhouse is ready to move into and enjoy.
