Located in a quiet neighbourhood just a short walk from the centre of Lanjarón, this charming renovated townhouse blends traditional character with modern comfort.

On the ground floor, you'll find a spacious open-plan living kitchen filled with natural light. A wood-burning stove creates a warm and welcoming atmosphere, perfect for cosy evenings and relaxed gatherings.

The upper floor features:

- Two bright bedrooms
- A full bathroom
- A private terrace with open views — ideal for sunset moments

The home also benefits from new double-glazed windows, ensuring excellent thermal and acoustic insulation year-round.

On the lower ground floor, there is a delightful self-contained apartment including:

- Kitchen-ready area
- Small dining space
- Bed space
