Descripción de la ubicación

Torrevieja is a coastal city, located in the south of Alicante province, within the Vega Baja region. It is situated in a landscape of high scenic and ecological value on the shores of the Mediterranean and next to the Lagoons of La Mata and Torrevieja, one of the most important wetlands in the Valencian Community and one of the most significant salt exploitation sites in Europe. The salt city has a Mediterranean climate heavily influenced by its proximity to the sea, resulting in a very mild annual average temperature and a large number of sunshine hours per year, making Torrevieja an idyllic place to live and enjoy the Mediterranean. With a total of 14 km of coastline, the extensive Torrevieja coast offers a multitude of beaches, rocky coves, and spots of exceptional beauty: from La Mata beach to Punta Prima, passing through Los Locos, El Cura, Los Náufragos, and Cala Ferrís. Aguas Nuevas is a residential district with quiet spaces, away from the hustle and bustle of the first line of the coast, but perfectly equipped with all kinds of commercial and sports infrastructures mainly. In this area is located the renowned sports city, . It is very well connected with Los Locos Beach, the most well known cove, La Mata Beach and Natural Park, and with the central
