

Byhus til salg i Serradilla, Cáceres

165.000€

A charming 19th-century village house in excellent condition with many original features including wood ceilings, original doors and floor tiles. This is a three story house with the main living area spread over two floors. The house has 6 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms (2 En-suite). There is a good size kitchen a large walk in pantry, 2 other rooms currently used as studies and another good size storage room and two living rooms. The third floor is divided into three large rooms with many original features. At the rear of the house, there is a traditional courtyard with an outdoor summer kitchen. This leads to the rear access and the attached garage, which is a good size offering parking and storage. Opposite the house is an additional casita, currently used as a storeroom. Located in the pretty village of Serradilla right on the border of the Monfragüe national park. Stunning countryside and many walks with the national park are right on the doorstep. This is a ready to move into house and is ideally located within an area known by birdwatchers and walkers alike for its diverse scenery and wildlife, making this an ideal house and location for a B&B and or rural tourism.

 0 soveværelser

 0 badeværelser