

4 Schlafzimmer Höhlenhaus zu verkaufen in Huescar, Granada

179.500€

Amazing 3 - 4 bed, 2 bath rustic style cave complex with incredible views. Huge private walled garden area. Great layout, outside space, parking and storage. Perfect property to use as a large family home, bed and breakfast or home with 1 or 2 rural rental units. Located on the very edge of a rural community next to the historic town of Huescar and just a short drive from the Sierra Segura National Park area. All amenities nearby including a natural spring water swimming pool open all year.

Included in the sale is a second cave house for renovation on a lower level down from the main home. ----- Full video tour available. ----- Vehicle entrance to the property through a sliding gate to a large parking area and covered parking area. Very spacious workshop or studio. Landscaped gardens with a large variety of trees, shrubs and blooming plants. Wide-open views to spectacular scenery. The home has 3 front entrances, each with its own individual sitting/patio area. ----- The first door enters to the main kitchen which has a pantry and a large bathroom off the side. To the right is a lovely living room with a wood burner. Off the living room are 2 double bedrooms and a large storage space. ----- Back through the kitchen through the hall is a very large open plan dining room and living room with large patio doors at the front leading onto the second patio. ----- Following through the next hall is another unit with its own entry door and patio at its entrance. This area has a large living room, its own kitchen and a beautiful shower room and double bedroom. ----- Outside on the grounds there is the perfect space to keep pets, have a garden, etc. Leading down the path at the front, down the hill is a second detached cave house in need of full renovation. This could be finished as a completely independent home, rental unit or second workshop area.
