Will do our best in the details to summarise the key points of this incredible opportunity but it’s really something which must be viewed/visited to fully appreciate. (Please watch the accompanying walk around videos as these offer a far better insight). Also please don’t request a viewing unless you are in a position to purchase now.  >p>The property and grounds are very private, overlook open countryside and are situated at the end of a small country lane which is just 3 mins drive from the pretty Almeria village of Partaloa. A small but very friendly village which is pre dominantly Spanish but with a good number of Ex Pats living in and around. The village as a location to live is more suited to those wanting to integrate into the Spanish community. It has a couple of great bar/eateries, few small shops, gym & GP etc. The larger market towns of 8 nbsp; Cantaria, Olula Del Rio and Albox all of which have
