As you enter through the front door, the large lounge and dining area is to the right with a large window and double doors opening onto the 125m² garden.

To the left we find the kitchen with Utility room also with access to the easy to maintain garden and a WC.

The stairs lead onto the first floor with 3 large double bedrooms all with fitted wardrobes, a family bathroom and with the Master bedroom having an ensuite and balcony with lovely views.

There is a further staircase leading to the roof terrace which has panoramic views of the River Guadiana, swimming pools with attractive, landscaped gardens and the beautiful suspension bridge which you drive straight across into Portugal so you can enjoy two beautiful countries!
