Local Area

The village of Cabrera nestles in the slopes of the Sierras Cabrera from where it takes its name. The properties located here enjoy dramatic and panoramic views, some with uninterrupted views to the Mediterranean Sea. Built on the site of a settlement dating back to Neolithic times the area is steeped in history. Ruins of older buildings can be found on many of the scenic walks from the village and the restored watch tower now houses a superb restaurant with beautiful terraces and breathtaking viewing area. Although very small in terms of numbers of dwellings, Cabrera enjoys local renown for its' fiestas, green bowling and annual open gardens competition which draw people from miles around. Just a short distance above the Cortijo Grande Golf course it takes approximately 20 minutes to drive to Turre, the nearest town, and a further 10 minutes to the coast. The central urban area has been lovingly built in the style of the Moors, who raised a large settlement here in the fifteenth century, and the mosaic tiles on the domes and cupolas reflect the dazzling Mediterranean sun in spectacular blues and golds.

The town of Turre is a short drive away located in the valley of the Rio Aguas. Dating back to the times of the Moors today's Turre is a bustling little market town. The labyrinth of streets in the old town are dotted with tapas bars and in
