It has a large fireplace and has a bar and workspace for waiters of 28 m² with storage space and a separate kitchen of 37 m² with two accesses, one direct to the bar and another to the living room. It has two services (ladies and gentlemen) of 11 m² each, a huge covered terrace at the entrance and a patio in the back with a barbecue and more room for outdoor or covered tables with a small stage for flamenco numbers and concerts. Apart it has two rooms with their corresponding bathrooms, separated from the main apartment.

Due to the meters it has, there is the possibility of making a small rural hotel or "bed and breakfast". It is very well located, next to the road that follows the course of the rio grande and that serves as a passage for cyclist and biker routes and for country lovers who are going to do hiking trails, visit the villages in the area, the sierra de las nieves and other places of interest such as the Charco del Portón Alto.
