

4 chambre Appartement à vendre dans Marbella, Málaga

2.560.000€

A one-of-a-kind luxury complex, EARTH comprises only 28 distinctive apartments and duplex penthouses, worthy of its iconic location.

Elegance is seamlessly paired with impeccable green credentials.

Designed by the architects at T10, this boutique development is envisioned as a contemporary and sophisticated sanctuary for informed residents.

Each refined apartment and duplex penthouse features private pools, spacious terraces, and secluded gardens.

Crafted with meticulous attention to detail, our residences skillfully marry architectural finesse with practical design.

Natural light illuminates the interiors, and expansive terraces offer breathtaking unobstructed views of the mountains and sea. Residents are part of a community of informed individuals.

We have created this exclusive apartment complex based on the concept of connection, both with nature and with each other.

The complex offers a resort-like ambiance, providing homeowners the opportunity to socialize or indulge in quiet contemplation.

Multiple apartments are available, from ground floor units with large terraces and gardens to the Penthouse Duplex with sensational views and a private pool.
