

3 chambre Appartement à vendre dans Algorfa, Alicante

190.000€

We are very happy to have listed this beautiful top floor property in the sought after village of Algorfa. it is a new property with luxury specifications and a huge solarium with an outdoor kitchen, large store room and amazing panoramic views of the countryside and mountains.

The property is accessed with its own private front door on the street level. As you enter the property there are stairs leading up to a spacious 172m² of living accommodation which comprises of 3 huge double bedrooms, one of with has a luxury en suite shower room and a stunning bathroom with modern bath tub. The lounge, dining area and kitchen are open plan with a feature wood burning fire. The carpentry throughout is very nice and the windows are tilt and turn double glazing with mosquito nets.

There is a large patio next to the kitchen which houses a utility area with a washing machine and tumble dryer and ample storage space. This could be used as a shaded area to have breakfast in the hot months.

The master bedroom has a large wrap around balcony with views of the village and countryside beyond.

There is an internal staircase leading up to an impressive and huge solarium with panoramic views. There is an outdoor kitchen and a large store room perfect for storing your outdoor furniture. The solarium is still being finished and will be completed before handing over to the new owner. This space is simply amazing and would make a great chill out space for relaxing and entertaining guests.

If you are looking to relocate into a typical Spanish village then this house is perfect for you. We highly recommend a viewing of this very nice property so contact us today to arrange your visit

 3 chambres

 2 salles de bains

 172m² Taille de construction