159.900€

This charming townhouse from 2002, where practicality and holiday vibes blend to perfection, needs new owners! Step into this cozy living room with dining area and immediately experience an atmosphere of homely comfort. With two bedrooms and 1 bathroom with a newer shower cabin on the first floor, as well as an additional toilet on the ground floor, everyday life in this house is very convenient. The modern kitchen offers elegant design, and with several terraces to choose from, outdoor living is just as inviting as indoors. An great terrace in front of the house welcomes you with open arms, while behind, accessible from the kitchen, lies another delightful outdoor oasis, ideal for cozy barbecue evenings under the stars. On the first floor, a world of views unfolds. From one of the bedrooms, you can wake up to a breathtaking panoramic view of the pink salt lake, the pool, and a green area! The same magnificent view can be enjoyed from the rooftop terrace - only even better! Imagine experiencing postcard-worthy sunsets in the most enchanting colors, every evening from your terraces! A practical storage room in aluminum has been made on the rooftop terrace. With air conditioning in the living room and both bedrooms, which both cools and heats, your comfort is always ensured, regardless of the weather outside. The washing machine is located in the bathroom on the first floor. There are awnings on the terrace downstairs as well as on the one on the first floor, for when you need shade. You can enjoy the sunny days at the spacious communal pool, where you also have the opportunity to relax and sunbathe. Located in Baños de Europa by the iconic pink salt lake in Torrevieja, the location is perfect! With supermarkets, several restaurants, and the popular shopping center Habaneras within reach, as well as the Naufragos beach just a short bike ride or walk away, your daily life is filled with conveniences and opportunities to fully enjoy life. Get ready to experience the ultimate combination of quality of life and convenience - welcome to your new home by the salt lake! Contact us to book a viewing.
