

3 chambre Maison de Ville à vendre dans Salares, Málaga

157.000€

This townhouse is located in the beautiful and quiet village of Salares, a beautiful enclave where its surroundings are still marked by its Mudejar style.

This small village population is approximately 150 inhabitants and it is surrounded by green areas with views of the mountains.

The house offers you: from the main entrance a living room with kitchen, one bedroom and one bathroom, from this level stairs lead to another floor where you can find a living room with fireplace, and in the upper part of the house there is a small laundry room and terrace on two levels with views of the village and up to the mountains. In addition, the property has another independent room, right next to the main door, once used as an animal stable, which could be restored as an apartment or used as a storage room.

In the lower part of the house there is a small room also used in the past as an animal stable that could also be used as a cellar for the house, and continuing in this same lower part of the house we find a large room that could easily be transformed into another home which would be perfect for guests or even to rent, since it has an exit to the garden of the house and the town square and the main street.

Additionally, another independent room/storage room is included right in front of the main house.

This is an ideal property for a large family or as an investment for rural rental.
