This site presents a rare and versatile development opportunity in a sought-after location. Ideal for developers or investors looking for customizable options. Situated in the heart of a charming and vibrant Spanish village, this plot enjoys a highly desirable location that offers something for everyone. Unlike many neighboring areas, this is a true year-round community, popular with both locals and expatriates alike. The plot is just 10 minutes from the renowned La Manga Club, home to three Championship Golf Courses, and only 25 minutes from Corvera International Airport, ensuring easy access for international travel. Beautiful beaches on the Mar Menor are just a 5-minute drive away, while the stunning, unspoiled coastline of Calblanque Natural Park on the Mediterranean is also within easy reach, offering the perfect blend of convenience and natural beauty.
