

3 chambre Maison de Ville à vendre dans Alora, Málaga

138.000€

A real little gem in one of Álora's most popular locations, just minutes from all the amenities. This delightful townhouse has been completely renovated with new roof, floors, windows and doors and the end product is a delightful home, just waiting for its new owners. The area is made up of similar houses,, interspersed with terraces and lemon trees creating a real haven just a short walk away from the bustling main street. At street level you enter into the light, open plan living room and traditional kitchen, with a 3rd bedroom and attractive shower room off the main area. A lovely marble staircase leads up to two more bedrooms and out onto the full width terrace with fantastic view to the church and mountains. The terrace also has a store room, which would easily convert to a second shower room and a shaded section for washing, storage. The front of the terrace captures the sun for most of the day and is a wonderful place to enjoy the night air. An additional possibility is to create a garage area under the house, with access from the street behind. A number of adjoining properties have used this option. This is a property that will sell quickly, so do come and view as quickly as you can. ref:APN7652
