

1 chambre Auberge à vendre dans Alora, Málaga

48.000€

A one bedroom, detached country cottage, with fitted kitchen with gas cooker, living room with wood burner, bedroom and full bathroom with separate shower. Part of a small hamlet of properties in a great location just 10 minutes drive from the nearest shops and bars. The house has been empty for some time, but with a little TLC could quickly become a pretty home or weekend bolt hole. It has a full Solar System installed, which needs a new battery to give you free electricity. Water is from a well. There is 1730sqm of land, which is partly fenced, with some Olive trees and space for a garden. There is also a raised concrete plinth for a small pool or hot tub. The view is great, across the valley to the mountains of El Chorro, famous for the climbing and the Caminito del Rey, which is just 30 minutes away. ref:APN7599
