

3 chambre Auberge à vendre dans Alora, Málaga

186.000€

Perched high in the hills this custom built, craftsman made wooden house is just fantastic. The living area is a massive open plan space with high quality fitted kitchen, dining space and wonderful lounge with double french doors and wood-burner fire. The very large main bedroom has an en-suite shower room and the other two large doubles share a shower room and separate cloakroom. The property is well insulated and double skinned, resulting in low heating and cooling costs. Outside there is a circular above ground pool and a purpose built covered bar and BBQ/Hog roast area with decking and seating. The views are stunning and the land of over 8,000sqm has olives and almonds. Over recent years the property has been upgraded with a new roof, solar, air con units and other improvements. The house has mains electricity, well water and water deposits. Access is via a well maintained riverbed track or mountain road. ref:APN7491
