

2 chambre Appartement à vendre dans Mijas Costa, Málaga

335.000€

Discover Helvet Green, an exclusive development of 103 homes in the heart of the Mijas Golf Urbanisation, designed for those looking for brightness, spaciousness and comfort in a unique and privileged natural environment, where you can enjoy its 2 18-hole golf courses, Los Olivos and Los Lagos, both designed by the renowned architect Robert Trent Jones. In addition, it is located just 5 minutes from the emblematic beaches of Fuengirola, as well as shopping centres and all kinds of services.

All homes, with 1, 2 and 3 bedrooms, have large private terraces and large windows that flood the interiors with light, creating open, warm and cosy spaces where you can live and share unforgettable moments. Each home combines modern design and functionality, taking care of every detail to offer comfort and elegance in all environments.

It combines functionality and style, with optimised distribution, thermal and acoustic insulation in partitions and facades, and a ventilation system that guarantees indoor air quality. The air conditioning incorporates a home automation system and domestic hot water is obtained by aerothermal energy.

The complex has complete common areas, with swimming pool, gym, sauna, community room, gardens and leisure areas, within a closed and safe urbanisation, perfect to enjoy with family or friends and live with tranquillity.

Helvet Green is not just a home, it is a lifestyle: a place where light, space, quality and well-being become the protagonists of each day, creating a unique environment on the Costa del Sol.
