Enjoy our beautiful surroundings in Murcia Aledo is a city in the heart of the Region of Murcia, with an area of 50.2 km² and 1,056 inhabitants. Its unique topography gives the city a striking character; perched high on a hill, it resembles a ship sailing through time. This elevation served as a natural defense in the Middle Ages and led to the fortifications. The castle tower is situated next to an impregnable chasm. Nestled between the Tercia and Espuña Mountains, with 200 hectares of irrigated land in the Guadalentín Valley, lies the city of Aledo with its 1,000 inhabitants, heirs to the ancient craft of pottery. The history of Aledo takes us back to legendary
