Spacious renovation property with olive land in Torre del Rico

Spacious countryside property in need of renovation with garage and patio in Torre del Rico, with the added bonus of an extra plot of land planted with olive trees.

The property – ground floor garage:

The property can be fully adapted to your own wishes. Currently, the ground floor comprises several rooms that could be used as follows: near the entrance, a bedroom; a living room with a large fireplace; an adjoining room that could serve as a utility room; a bedroom with access to the patio; the kitchen with an adjoining bathroom. The kitchen also provides access to the very spacious patio, which offers ample space for, for example, an outdoor kitchen and/or a jacuzzi. From the patio there is access to a room currently used as storage, as well as access to the enormous garage/workshop, which also has an entrance from the rear. Finally, there is another entrance door at the rear of the property that opens onto the patio.

The property – first floor:

On the first floor there are four additional bedrooms. One of the bedrooms has an adjoining storage room, and there is another storage space next to the staircase.
