Modern 2 bedroom flat with terrace and swimming pool in Orihuela Costa

Upon entering this bright two-bedroom, two-bathroom flat, the first thing you notice is the feeling of home. The layout is perfect: a modern, comfortable and enjoyable space. The living room, spacious and bathed in natural light coming in through the large windows, opens onto a cosy terrace where evenings can be spent dining al fresco and watching the sun go down. The kitchen integrates with the rest of the house without losing its independence. Next to it, the master bedroom has an en-suite bathroom, creating a private corner, ideal for relaxation. The second bedroom is versatile: perfect as a guest room, office or space for the little ones. Both bathrooms are equipped with high quality materials, combining elegance and functionality. But living here is not limited to the interior. The urbanisation offers a lifestyle that combines wellbeing and comfort. The communal swimming pool is the focus of sunny days, while the gym and sauna add that touch of everyday luxury. In addition, the underground car park guarantees security and convenience from the very first moment.
