LOCATION:

San Javier is a privileged corner of south-eastern Spain, located on the shores of the Mar Menor in the Region of Murcia. Strolling through its streets conveys the calm of a coastal town that combines seafaring tradition with a modern lifestyle, surrounded by quiet beaches and a mild climate all year round.

Its location is one of its greatest attractions. Just 35 km away is the city of Cartagena, with its historic port and Roman heritage, while the city of Murcia is about 47 km away, offering the cultural and commercial life of a large city. It is also easily connected to Torrevieja (about 35 km away) and the tourist area of Orihuela Costa (about 40 km away).

Airports make it even easier to connect with the outside world. Murcia Region International Airport (Corvera) is about 35 km away, which means you can get there in just half an hour. In addition, Alicante-Elche Airport is about 85 km away, ideal for international flights to multiple destinations in Europe.
