Beautiful Natural Surroundings La Romana is surrounded by vineyards, almond groves, and rolling hills in the Vinalopó Valley. If you enjoy peace, hiking, and fresh air, this setting is hard to beat. * 2. Fantastic Mediterranean Climate With over 300 days of sunshine a year, you'll enjoy warm summers and mild winters. It's ideal if you prefer outdoor living most of the year.???? 3. Affordable Cost of Living Compared to coastal hotspots, property and daily expenses are much lower. You can find spacious homes, often with land or pools, at very reasonable prices.???? 4. Strong Community Feel This is a close-knit town where locals and expats mix well. There are regular markets, fiestas, and social events that make it easy to feel at home.???? 5. Local Food & Wine Culture The area is known for its wine production and traditional Spanish cuisine. You'll enjoy fresh, local ingredients and authentic tapas culture.???? 6. Good Location Without the Crowds You're about 30–40 minutes from the coast, Alicante city, and the airport—close enough for convenience but far enough to avoid tourist crowds.
